Church Schedules Double Reception

There will be a double celebration at the reception Tuesday night at Central Presbyterian Church, of which Rev. John H. P. Strome is pastor. The occasion will mark the 40th anniversary of the Woman's Missionary Society of the church and the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Lingerman of 13 Undercliff road, Millburn.

The couple have been members of Central Church for 43 years. Mrs. Lingerman has been president of the society for 33 years and is a charter member and served as its first vice president when it was organized February 7, 1905. Her husband has served the church as ruling elder 42 years and also has served four terms on the General Council of the Presbytery of Newark and three times was a commissioner to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

The society was the first to have a room in Presbyterian Hospital and one in the Deaconess' Presbyterian Home. Both are known as the Central Room. Its first treasurer, Mrs. E. G. Harper, is still a member. The first president, Mrs. Charles F. Granger, no longer resides in the vicinity and the first treasurer, Mr. Richard Wright, died a few seasons ago.

Born in Newark

The Lingermans are both native Newarkers and resided in this city until moving to Millburn 17 years ago. The former Katie G. Anscheutz, Mrs. Lingerman is the daughter of the late Philip and Mary Anscheutz, and her husband is the son of the late John C. and Elizabeth Lingerman, all active in the early development of Newark.

The couple were married June 12, 1895, at Bethany Presbyterian Church, a part of Old First Church, by the pastor, Rev. Everett O. McFarland.

The Lingermans have one daughter, Mrs. John Edson Campbell of Maplewood, and two grandsons.

Mr. Lingerman, a vice president in the sales department of Fairlie & Wilson Coal Co., has been in the coal business since 1894. He previously was with Tegen & Wiebke

The Woman's Missionary Society of Central Presbyterian Church, Clinton and Belmont Avenues, Newark, N. J., are celebrating their Fortieth Anniversary on Tuesday Evening, June Twelfth at the Church, Eight o'clock at which time they will tender a reception to
